

All applicants must document English proficiency with one of the following tests:

- English (140 hours) from Norwegian upper secondary school: written and oral exam.
- TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) with a minimum score of 60 points from TOEFL iBT / TOEFL iBT Home Edition or 500 points from TOEFL PBT.
- IELTS (International English Language Testing Service), academic test with a minimum score of 5.0.
- Cambridge ESOL Examinations: First Certificate in English
- Cambridge ESOL Examinations: Certificate in Advanced English
- Cambridge ESOL Examinations: Certificate of Proficiency in English
- Pearson PTE Academic / PTE Academic Online with a minimum overall score of 51
- The European language certificate (telc): English B2
- The European language certificate (telc): English B2-C1 University
- The European language certificate (telc): all English certificates at C1-level

You can also meet the English language requirement if you have

- a complete or incomplete university degree in English language and literature, with at least 60 ECTS in the subject English.
- completed a minimum of one year of upper secondary school or one year university studies taught in English in Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, Great Britain or the USA.
- completed an English language Masters' degree

If you cannot document English proficiency you must provide us with information how you have achieved proficiency in English, both oral and written, to be able to complete the study programme. This form is not valid for study programmes taught in English.

Answers must be in English!

Which competencies and skills do you believe are important in order to work independently with both practical and theoretical assignments within the study programme to which you are applying?

Please describe in what way have you actively used English at work and/or in your studies.

Please explain why you believe you have sufficient skills in English to fully understand the course curriculum, complete assignments and function well in your

Any completed courses in English not mentioned above (documentation required)

I hereby confirm that the information given above is correct.

Signature applicant:

---